

All-In-One Ticket Report

2nd Quarter 2022

By Grey Brennan
Alabama Tourism Department
August 2022

Letter of appreciation to the Alabama tourism industry

I would like to thank each of 66 ticketed attractions that agreed to join the Alabama Tourism Department in our statewide attraction ticketing program. With over $9000 paid to attractions in the first six months of operations, this program is already benefiting both the traveling public and industry.

Phase one of the initiative, asking attractions to join the program, is complete.

During this first six months of operations, all sales for the 14 different tickets were from the www.alabama.travel website. Eight of the 14 tickets were either added to the website near or at the end of the 2nd quarter. As expected, these tickets have not been published long enough to show little, or any, money for the attraction on those tickets for the period covered in this report. They are included for historical purposes and to show a full accounting of ticket results. We fully expect their sales will grow with time.

We are focusing more efforts to get the tickets placed on additional websites. This will be key to growing sales so that every ticket and attraction included can see results.

As a part of that effort, we now welcome local tourism organizations to promote and actively sell their area's ticket. We are actively promoting the All-In-One Ticket at tourism trade shows and are pleased to be able to announce that already American Tours International has agreed to offer eight of the All-In-One Tickets on their platform which is used by thousands of travel agents worldwide.

Best regards,

Grey Brennan
Deputy Director
Alabama Tourism Department
